Stonebridge Bank Celebrates New Full-Service Branch In Bucks County

West Chester, PA – June 15, 2006 – West Chester, PA-based Stonebridge Bank proudly celebrates the opening of its newest location in Bucks County, PA.

The new full-service branch is located at 319 E. Street Rd., Warminster, PA 18974. It unites the existing loan production office, formerly located in Southampton, PA, with the addition of the new full-service branch.

The Bank will be hosting a two-week Grand Opening that will run from June 19th through the 30th, which will feature promotional rates on selected financial products and free giveaways. Stonebridge Bank encourages all existing and potential customers within the community to stop into the new branch over the next two weeks.

Joe Spada, President and CEO of Stonebridge Bank, had this to say, “Our new location displays our commitment to the Bucks County area and allows us to better serve our customers by providing the convenience of a local, full-service branch in addition to our existing online presence.”
